Top Security Firm Taps Local Leader For Florida Expansion

Scarsdale, New York (December 16, 2004) – Based in Scarsdale, New York for more than 20 years and with customers throughout 48 states, Scarsdale Security Systems Inc. has grown to become one of the nation's top 100 security companies. The company is pleased to announce that it has recently appointed Mr. Tony Colavito to the post of Sales Manager for the central Florida region.

Mr. Colavito joins the company with more than 25 years experience in Business and Residential Security in the Bradenton and Sarasota area. As the owner of his own successful security company for many years, Tony has been active in the local community and has helped thousands of customers meet their security needs. As the past regional vice president of the Alarm Association of Florida, Tony helped strengthen the ties between local businesses, law enforcement and the community and is looking forward to returning to the security field.

Tony is joined in central Florida by the existing Scarsdale Security staff of installation, service and project management team members. The company has a number of existing clients in the central Florida region, including some large regional companies with locations throughout the state and the nation. Tony will be focusing his work on commercial and residential clients with special attention to those clients that can benefit from the special services that Scarsdale Security can uniquely provide including security, access control, video surveillance and network data communications.

Scarsdale Security Systems is well known for its innovative use of technology, providing local residents, schools and businesses with its high reliability 'customer-first' approach to security monitoring and services. This attention to customer service has earned the company one of the highest customer service rating indicators in the nation and is one reason why the company enjoys a popular reputation with a number of large national account chains, each with hundreds of locations across the country.

Tony can be reached toll-free at 1-866-621-4700 (extension 2356)
